B. CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT & ETHICS

- 1) Discuss briefly the company's policies on the following business conduct or ethics affecting directors, senior management, and employees:

The Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, as approved by its Board of Directors, has the following guiding principles:

Business Conduct & Ethics	Directors	Senior Management	Employees
(a) Conflict of Interest	All apparent, potential, and actual conflicts of interest should be scrupulously avoided and any transactions between an employee and the Company which involves a potential conflict of interest should only be entered into after receipt of the appropriate approval. All situations that reasonably would be expected to give rise to a conflict of interest must be disclosed to the Company.	Same.	Same.
(b) Conduct of Business and Fair Dealings	The Company's success depends on building productive relationships with one another and third parties on honesty, integrity, ethical behavior and mutual trust. Every director, officer and employee should endeavor to deal fairly with each of the Company's patrons, suppliers, competitors, and other directors, officers, and employees. No director, officer, and employee should take unfair advantage of anyone through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged information, misrepresentation of material facts, or any other unfair-dealing practices	Same.	Same.
(c) Receipts of gifts from third parties	The giving and receiving of gifts is a worthwhile and acceptable business practice when performed within the boundaries set forth by the Code of Business Ethics and Conduct and applicable laws and regulations. Appropriate business gifts and entertainment are welcome	Same.	Same.

Business Conduct & Ethics	Directors	Senior Management	Employees
	courtesies designed to build relationships and understanding among business partners. However, gifts and entertainment should not compromise, or appear to compromise, the directors'/management's/employees' ability to make objective and fair business decisions.
(d) Compliance with Laws & Regulations	All directors, officers, and employees are expected to understand and comply with all laws, rules, and regulations that apply to their job position. It is the Company's policy to abide by the national and local laws of the host nations and communities. The fact that in some countries certain standards of conduct are legally prohibited, but these prohibitions are not enforced in practice, or their violation is not subject to public criticism or censure, will not excuse any illegal action by a director/management/employee.	Same.	Same.
(e) Respect for Trade Secrets/Use of Non-public Information	One of the Company's most valuable assets is information. All directors, officers, and employees should maintain the confidentiality of information (whether or not it is considered proprietary) entrusted to them not only by the Company, but also by suppliers, patrons, and others related to our business. Confidential information includes all non-public information that might be of use to our competitors or harmful to the Company, or its patrons or suppliers, if disclosed. Examples of confidential information include trade secrets, new product or marketing plans, customer lists, research and development ideas, manufacturing processes, or	Same.	Same.

Business Conduct & Ethics	Directors	Senior Management	Employees
	acquisition or divestiture prospects.
(f) Use of Company Funds, Assets and Information	Proper and efficient use of Company, supplier, customer, and other third party assets, such as electronic communication systems, information (proprietary or otherwise), material, facilities and equipment, as well as intangible assets, is each director/officer/employee's responsibility. They must not use such assets for personal profit for themselves or others. The assets must be used only for legitimate business purposes. However, in limited instances, Company assets may be used for other purposes approved by management.	Same.	Same.
(g) Employment & Labor Laws & Policies	The Company and the directors/officer/employees shall seek to create a workplace environment that is harmonious, respectful of the rights of all employees, and conducive to attaining excellence in the quality of service provided to the Company's patrons.	Same.	Same.
(h) Disciplinary action	Directors/Officers/Employees in violation of the company policies may be subject to progressive warning process and where warranted, termination/removal, subject to Philippine labor law requirements and procedure.	Same.	Same.
(i) Whistle Blower	There will be no retaliation against someone reporting an activity that he or she believes to be a violation of any law, rule, or regulation. Any supervisor or other person intimidating or imposing sanctions on a director, officer, or employee for reporting a matter will be disciplined, which may include termination of	Same.	Same.

Business Conduct & Ethics	Directors	Senior Management	Employees
	employment.
(j) Conflict Resolution	Directors may raise issues with the Chairman for resolution.	Senior management are expected to first raise issues with their supervisors. If the issue remains unresolved, Human Resources ("HR") will be involved to determine the best resolution process and be involved in the same.	Employees are expected to first raise issues with their supervisors. If the issue remains unresolved, HR will be involved to determine the best resolution process and be involved in the same.

- 2) Has the code of ethics or conduct been disseminated to all directors, senior management and employees?

The Company's Code of Business Ethics and Conduct has been disseminated to the Directors, Executive Officers and key management personnel of the Company. A process is being put in place to make the receipt of such Code part of the new employees' on-boarding and orientation process.

K. INVESTORS RELATIONS PROGRAM

- 1) Discuss the Company's external and internal communications policies and how frequently they are reviewed. Disclose who reviews and approves major company announcements. Identify the committee with this responsibility, if it has been assigned to a committee.

The Company has developed the following policies to govern its external and internal communications: (i) Disclosure Controls and Procedures Policy, (ii) Guidelines for Corporate Communications and Continuous Disclosure Policy, and (iii) Shareholders Communications Policy.

Under these policies, major announcements and regulatory filings will require input and review from the Disclosure Committee composed of the President of the Company, Chief Operating Officer, Chief Financial Officer/Treasurer, Head of the Legal Department, Head of Internal Audit, Head of Human Resources, a Senior Manager from Financial Compliance Department, Investor Relations Officer, and representatives each from the MCE's Legal Department, Financial Compliance Department, and Investor Relations Department, with input from external legal counsels where relevant.

Non-regulatory disclosures, including Public Relations and other Corporate Communications announcements and internal communication, will also generally include review of Legal, Investor Relations and Finance departments to ensure consistency with regulatory filings and general communication with the investment community.

- 2) Describe the Company's investor relations program including its communications strategy to promote effective communication with its stockholders, other stakeholders and the public in general. Disclose the contact details (e.g. telephone, fax and email) of the officer responsible for investor relations.

Please refer to the Company's Annual Corporate Governance Report filed on June 28, 2013.*

- 3) What are the Company's rules and procedures governing the acquisition of corporate control in the capital markets, and extraordinary transactions such as mergers, and sales of substantial portions of corporate assets?

Please refer to the Company's Annual Corporate Governance Report filed on June 28, 2013.*
